omprise a very considerable part of "Buster's" patrons. They have found that it contains all that combines to is full of bright, snappy dialogue that makes it always interesting. Its musical numbers are all new and of the character that will cause those inclined to humor whistle to keep busy for a while. The music is of the jingly sort,

that is always a feature of productions

of this sort, but with "Buster" it is even a greater feature than it is with any other current musical comedy.

That this is a fact is largely due to the effective manner in which a large chorus is employed. Another quality, and a very essential one to the success of all in which the chorus figures, is what is commonly termed ginger. Of this very desirable element "Buster Brown"

has a superabundance, as is amply attested to by the audience in its insistence on repetitions of all numbers in which the chorus participates. Some of the numbers for which the audience have shown their appreciation are

'Won't You Be My Baby Boy," "Old Bill Oliver," "I Won't Play Unless You Coax Me," "Rosebud," "I Couldn't

Make a Hit With Susie," "and a new

"Buster Brown" song. An added fea-ture this season is the celebrated

"The Missouri Girl." "The Missouri Girl" is next week's offering at the Lyric, and in this Miss Johns will appear in a rather different role than those in which she has made such a hit during the season. From the highly emotional part in "The Power of Truth" to the part she portrays the coming week is somewhat of a change. "The Missouri Girl" is a clever play, and the Utahna stock company is going to play it cleverly. The way this made for "A Daughter of Virginia" and

"The Power of Truth" is worthy of notice. One of the strong parts in "The Missouri Girl" is that of the strongminded mother, taken by Miss Fanny Hammond, who has won a home with the Lyric's patrons as a character woman. The comedy will be furnished by

Frederick Harrington and Miss Rodrigue, the latter appearing as a Missouri belle of the Sis Hopkins type.

Twelve persons will participate in the presentation of the coming week's bill.

Harold Bauer.

Harold Bauer's genius as an interpreter of piano music is largely responsible for the fame which he has achieved.

He has sympathy-that is, the gift of

npany made good on the pro-

Hughes musical trio.

make musical comedies successful.

THIS WEEK AT THE THEATRES

Salt Lake Theatre.-Monday. + + Tuesday and Wednesday evenings + and Wednesday matinee, "The + Toymaker;" Friday and Saturday + evenings and Saturday matinee, + 'Brewster's Millions.'

Orpheum. - Tomorrow evening + and all week, matinees every day + except Monday, yaudeville. + except Monday, vaudeville.

day, "The Missouri Girl." ++++++++++++++++++++++

A theatrical event to which many Salt Lakers have been looking forward with the keenest interest is scheduled for next Friday night, when Miss June Mathis will be seen at the Salt Lake theatre in "Brewster's Millions." Mathis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mathis of this city. Years ago, not so many, either, little June Mathis was one of Salt Lake's most popular juvenile performers. She was in great demand for entertainments of many descriptions and there were frequent predictions that if she ever chose the theatrical profession as her life work she would be most successful Six years ago Miss Mathis did enter upon a stage career, and the predictions made in her childhood have been abundantly fulfilled. Although she is still less than 20 years old, she has advanced steadily. Her first professional appearance was in a little vaudeville sketch in which she attracted much favorable comment on the Keith circuit. From this she graduated into important parts with May Vokes in "Whose Baby Ahe You?" and "My Friend from India." The following year she appeared as Janie with Ezra Kendall in "The Vin-egar Buyer." Managers were now bid-ding for her services, and from several offers she accepted one with Will T Hodge in "Eighteen Miles from Home. Next she returned to vaudeville, playing the Keith circuit with Barrow and Lancaster in a sketch that was highly comstarted on a week's engagement by the San Francisco opera company last

As the name suggests there are toys of the most wonderful description and proclivities in the piece. Dolls that walk and talk and dance and sing all the world like human beings. If Johannus Guggenheimer had not said last night that he made them one would believe they were human.

And the toys! Wonderful drums that played themselves. Clowns climbing up and sliding down poles, dancing Teddy Bears and mechanical effects that made At the close of this vaudeville season, At the close of this vaddevine as all the little children should be Miss Mathis had her first experience as light. Surely the Marquam should be a star. As Patsy in the comedy, "The turned over to the children this week, Girl Patsy," she toured the eastern and for there they will find their wildest all the little children scream with desouthern states, and the critics were dream of toyland fulfilled. manimous in their approval of her

Daphne Pollard is the doll. She is a sweet, dainty little doll. So sweet that when her father, Johannus Guggenhei peated and emphasized her successes of other seasons. The character is said to be particularly well adapted to her tall additional be particularly well adapted to her tall additional beautiful adapted to her tall adap ents, and she gives a faithful, life-like Daphne comes mighty near being the whole show at the Marquam this week. From the many inquiries that have een made at the Salt Lake theatre remembers of the company have thrown been made at the Salt Lake theatre regarding the date of Miss Mathis' comthemselves into the spirit of the play she would be. Her acting is really remarkable, and her singing was better than usual last night. But one cares only for the doll when the show is on, ng, it is certain that she will be greeted stration such as has rarely been witwhether the doll be singing, dancing, talking or laughing.

With the work done by Johannus
Guggenheimer, the doll has to share the The critics of the newspapers in ev- honors for the entertainment afforded ry city visited by the San Francisco the large audience last night. He was Opera company have been a unit in the toymaker, and impertinently designaising "The Toymaker," the dainty, nated himself as the greatest man in dancing, delightful comic opera which the world. Of course pride goeth before will be the offering at the Salt Lake a fall, and Johannus Guggenheimer retheatre next Monday, Tuesday and ceives an awful fall before the final cur-Wednesday. Otheman Stevens of the tain is rung down. Los Angeles Examiner, Sidle Lawrence

"Brewster's Millions."

The Cohan and Harris comedians cisco Examiner, Colgate Baker of the will present the year's biggest comedy Chronicle, John Jay Harrison of the Portland Oregonian, Will Sutter of the Journal, have all been a unit in praising the piece. W. P. Strandborg of the Portland Telegram, writing under date of Monday, Dec. 23. paid the company George Barr McCutcheon was the author, and it achieved a very large sucthor, and it achieved a very large sucand the production the following comcess with readers of light fiction. The About this time each year comes story was of a young man who spent knocking around the heart a feeling a million dollars in a year in order to which will not be denied entrance, and which finally breaks through the barriers of reserve, meanness and convendition that he should get rid of all his tionality. And the feeling grows and previous fortune without dissipation or expands until it fairly floods the heart, assistance. And, furthermore, the the mind, the soul, and then we have young man was not allowed to tell Christmas. All the season's charities anyone what he was trying to do. The and love greetings are part of the feel- trick was accomplished after Brewster ing which envelops the world this week, had alienated most of his friends, who and to complete the grand occasion pan- tried to check his extravagance, and tomimes, exercises and festivals are the other millions came to the man deemed necessary for the proper cele- who showed that he could be a good

It must have been this thought in the mind of the Marquam management dramatized the novel, have not fol-Grand.—This evening and all which led to the production of "The lowed the book too closely in their week, matinees Wednesday, Friday +
and Saturday, "Buster Brown." +

Lyric.—This evening and through + by thought. Few efforts to please the line store the book too closely in the Toymaker" at the popular Morrison

work, but the main idea, the feverish energy required in the spending, not the popular for the book too closely in the the street the st Lyric.—This evening and through + street theatre this week. It was a hapenergy required in the spending, not py thought. Few efforts to please the the getting of money, and many of the public have come so near to the mark incidents. as the delightful comic opera which the author's view point.

peated and emphasized her successes of portraiture of the girl she represents.

"The Toymaker."

of the Herald, Julian Johnson of the

sed in the old theatre.

bration of the event.

JOHN C. RICE AND SALLY COHEN. In "A Bachelor's Wife," at the Orpheum.

FOUR PICTURES OF JUNE MATHIS

As Patsy in "The Girl Patsy."

In "Brewster's Millions."

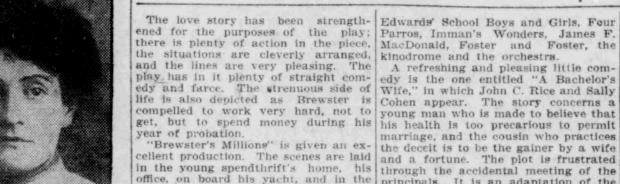

As "Georgiana, 18," in vaudeville.

As Jane in "The Vinegar Buyer."

placing himself precisely in the posi-tion of those whose sentiments, moods and emotions he musically pictures. Bauer has toured Germany, Spain, France, The Netherlands, Austria, Russia, Sweden and America. Indeed, he has almost as great a reputation as a traveler as a planist. He has come to this country five times, his present tour, under London Charlton, being transcontinental. His recital in Salt Lake will be given Monday evening, March 9, in the First Methodist chuch.

in the Eyes of the Wife Vienna Bakery bread is always the best. Ask your grocer.

vacht setting is elaborate, and there is an effective storm scene. The company is large and the players are well cast. From a scenic standpoint, "Brewster's tour this season.

Vaudeville at Orpheum.

visit here, that the Orpheum bills be a complete revelation. The following is the program:

ened for the purposes of the play; Parros, Imman's Wonders, James F. there is plenty of action in the piece, MacDonald, Foster and Foster, the

and the lines are very pleasing. The play has in it plenty of straight comedy and farce. The strenuous side of Wife," in which John C. Rice and Sally is also depicted as Brewster is Cohen appear. The story concerns a compelled to work very hard, not to young man who is made to believe that get, but to spend money during his his health is too precarious to permit marriage, and the cousin who practices "Brewster's Millions" is given an ex- the deceit is to be the gainer by a wife rellent production. The scenes are laid and a fortune. The plot is frustrated in the young spendthrift's home, his through the accidental meeting of the office, on board his yacht, and in the plain abode of the girl he loves. The "girl in the wrong room" story, but is entirely new, and the audience is kept in constant laughter.

Gus Edwards' School Boys and Girls scored a pronounced success with their Millions" is probably the heaviest and sweet singing, catchy jokes and clever most massive production carried on dancing here last year, and this year they are said to be even better.

The Four Parros, three strong wo men who work, and a strong man The announcement for the coming who assists, are expert in manipulating week would seem to already make good heavy shot and bar balls, and to those the promise of Martin Beck on his last who enjoy athletic turns, this act will would grow more and more attractive. Another especially entertaining spe cialty is promised in Imman's Won-John C. Rice and Sally Cohen, Gus ders. The animals in this act are trained to such perfection that they are James F. MacDonald comes nearly being a headliner, even with such attractions as the above. He is a sing-ing comedian and story teller, and is voice, and injects a number of good stories for diversity. Foster and Foster render splendidly several vocal and piano selections in the "Volunteer Pianist. They have never failed to please and satisfy their possessed of a very pleasing tenor audiences. It goes without saying that Welhe's orchestra will render their part of the program in their usual charming manner, and the kinodrome will also do its

"Buster Brown."

The ever-welcome "Buster Brown" will be at the Grand theatre, with matinees Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, for one week commencing tonight. Since musical comedies first became popular none has ever been given great patronage than Mr. Outcault's play. The impression prevailed for some time that "Buster Brown" was an entertainment designed for the amusement of children only, but the error of this was discovered and the grown-ups now

Claude J. Nettleton TEACHER OF VIOLIN.

Studio 512 East Third South St. Telephones: Bell 4262, Ind. 4076.

Dr. Leininger's Formaldehyde Antiseptic Soap

cleanses, heals and disinfects. It is especially beneficial for treatment of the scalp. It contains BORACIC ACID EUCALYPTUS BENZOIN RESBRAN AND SOLIDIFIED FORMALDEHYDE Absolutely unequaled

Halliday Drug Co.

in its effects. 15c the cake.

Between Salt Lake and Orpheum Theatres.

BUSTER, TIGE AND MARY JANE, In "Buster Brown at the Grand Theatre.

Harold Bauer

Monday Evening, March 9 in First Methodist Church

Reserved seats, $1.00; general admission, 75c.

Chart will be ready Wednesday, March 4, at 10 a. m. for all holding tickets exchangeable for reserved seats at Clayton's Music store: also at Chamberlain's Music store, 51-53 Main St.

SALE OF TICKETS BEGINS THURSDAY.

Doors open at 7:45.

Recital begins 8:30

LYRIC THEATRE

Week starting Saturday matinee, February 29th. THE UTAHNA STOCK COMPANY in the great comedy drama

MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY. Evening prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Matinee prices 10 and 20 cents.

IF IT HAPPENS IT'S IN THE HERALD.

Scene from "The Toymaker," at the Theatre.